Year 8! Wow. It was 8 years ago that God placed the precious people of Haiti into our hearts. Only because of Him, and how He has connected His sons and daughters there with compassionate and generous ones here, together we are demonstrating the love of Christ, giving hope and changing the lives of many men, women and children not only as an answer to their prayers for help now, but also for their eternal destiny. We cannot imagine their struggle, their desperate cries for help and the utter hopelessness all around. All we can say is Thank you God and Thank you everyone that partners with support and prayers to help our brothers and sisters there.

Haiti in Crisis 2023 has been the most dangerous and deadly year we have seen. Gangs ravage everyone and everything, terrorizing young and old. Police are targeted. Killings, rapes, taking hostages has escalated. In August a mob attacked Bon Secours orphanage, killing the pastor's wife and their nephew then burned everything, all food and belongings.

Our own childrens' home had to flee to another town. Esdras has been shot at by gangs, his friends captured and tortured. This past month, our mission truck was struck by gunfire as Esdras took a pastor to the hospital. His own little son had a doctor's appoint in Port Au Prince for his heart. They took an overloaded boat, then a tap-tap, to hide...all with a toddler. Please let this settle into your hearts and minds. Continue to pray for Esdras and his family. He has laid down his life to help others...a true warrior and disciple of Christ.

Our doctor on staff, Dr Max, profoundly summed up life in Haiti with this chilling statement:

"Currently in Haiti now our expectancy life is 24 hours renewable by God"

We are thrilled that Dr Max is now here in the US for 2 years (thru USCIS and no financial assistance from taxpayers or our government). We hope you can meet him soon. He is such an inspiration! Our mission is so blessed with another godly doctor in Haiti, Dr. Aslyn.

Miracles of 2023...To God be the Glory

❖ A new home was provided for Bon Secours orphanage that was destroyed. Acts 1:8 supports them monthly. We also supplied new mattresses, coverings clothes and food!

❖ A wonderful new home in a more peaceful town was secured for Acts 1:8 Childrens' home, and all were moved safely

❖ A godly Bible teacher instructs the students in our new Children's home

❖ Many students received the gift of school! God bless each person and group making this life-changing investment for a precious boy or girl. With all the chaos, school is a special place of hope and refuge that both eases and challenges their minds. Pray for this next generation of leaders!

❖ Support and supplies given to a pastor in the town of our Children's Home who opened a new school (left)

❖ Sponsored a huge 40 day prayer event with a group of pastors

- ❖ Wednesday program sharing about our Lord and meal to over 60 children and adults in the mountains!
- ❖ Started businesses for widows and disabled for self-support!
- ❖ Food provided for widows and families!
- ❖ Goats and chickens given!
